The Punishment Of My Doomed Prophets Of Selfishness And Greed

“My son, My Hand is against them, false prophets who demand money from My people. I will punish them forever, says the LORD. Ministry should be free, so why are they charging vast sums so that they could be ministered unto? I will punish forever, even now My prophets of greed and selfishness; they shall be no more haunting the land with their false prophecies foisted on the people for money. My Hand is against them, and they shall be punished in My fiery Hell, the place for all false prophets, for they will not obey Me nor do My will in freely giving after they have freely received from Me. Who do they think they are to demand money for ministry of false prophecy, My son? They shall be gathered up en-masse and cast alive into My fiery burning Furnace of Fire, My son! Such is the fate of all who rebel against Me in performing their own will in ministry, My son. Your LORD has spoken.”
